By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thanksgiving, a day for taking stock and counting blessings, will be celebrated throughout the land Thursday with traditional feasting, parades and quiet prayer.

At Plymouth, Mass., where it started, descendants of the Pilgrims and others will attend services in the First Church (Unitarian). Later a pageant will portray the events linked with the founding of the colony in 1620-21.

President Eisenhower and his family and grandchildren will spend the holiday at their vacation spot in Augusta, Ga.

The Macy parade in New York, now viewed by additional millions via television, again will feature giant balloons bobbing down Manhattan's streets and avenues — in spite of a government ban on using helium to fill them.

The Macy people and the Good-year people, who make the balloons, put their heads together and decided to inflate the balloons with air and suspend them from huge, mobile cranes.

Pittsburgh will open a 14-month bicentennial celebration with a colorful ceremony, including a parade of 180 bagpipers, a band concert, historical speeches, and the firing of cannon. Later Pittsburghers can take in the Penn State-Pitt football game, opening event of the bicentennial sports program.

At San Diego, Calif., Dr. Frank Lowe, president of the Council of Churches, called for a large at-

Shredding Machines to Fight Bollworm

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Sixteen heavy-duty shredding machines will be operated in south-west Arkansas cotton field for the next month as part of a stepped-up drive against pink bollworm.

The machines arrived here yesterday. They were leased by the federal Plant Pest Control Division.

J. C. Haley, supervisor of the pest control division at Little Rock, said the machines are a new type that kill about 80 per cent of the bollworms in a field, leaving the rest to be killed by deeply plowing under the shredded stalks.

Haley said this would be about double the destruction capacity of shredders possessed by most farmers.

The official also said that pink bollworms have been found in Washington County for the first time since 1956, bringing to 20 the total number of counties where the cotton pests have been discovered this year.

At Plymouth, Mass., where it started, descendants of the Pilgrims and others will attend services in the First Church (Unitarian). Later a pageant will portray the events linked with the founding of the colony in 1620-21.

Pittsburgh will open a 14-month bicentennial celebration with a colorful ceremony, including a parade of 180 bagpipers, a band concert, historical speeches, and the firing of cannon. Later Pittsburghers can take in the Penn State-Pitt football game, opening event of the bicentennial sports program.

Alaska Appears Headed for a Demo Sweep

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A smashing Democratic victory in Alaska's election emerged today as returns mounted from the vast territory's 287 precincts.

Democrats led in all major races and were assured of overwhelming control of the 60-member Legislature.

Less than half the estimated total vote of about 40,000 in Tuesday's general election had been reported, but big city precincts still out were considered sure to reinforce the steadily growing Democratic lead.

Republicans still had a chance in the major contest between Democrat Ernest Gruening and Republican Mike Stepovich for one of the new state's two U.S. Senate seats.

Gruening, appointed governor of Alaska for more than 13 years during Democratic administrations, pulled ahead after the lead changed several times during the night.

Stepovich, who resigned as governor to make the Senate race, was the Republicans' strongest candidate for any major office.

E. L. Bartlett, Alaska's Democratic delegate to Congress for the past 14 years, captured one U.S. Senate seat in a landslide.

Ralph Rivers, Democratic nominee for the single U.S. House seat from Alaska, claimed victory on the basis of the mounting returns.

William Eggen, the Democratic choice for governor, was increasing his margin in the race for the first elected governor of Alaska.

The states rights resolution declared attacks on "liberties and authorities reserved to the states." Although it avoided specific mention of the racial integration issue, the resolution struck at the U.S. Supreme Court and suggested a constitutional amendment requiring lower court experience for appointees to the high tribunal.

The resolution on the Highway Commission commended that the group's "excellent progress and accomplishments" but stopped federal highway policies under the current nationwide roadbuilding program.

The convention declared its opposition to any expansion of the roadbuilding program and urged that state governments "continue to assume the primary responsibility" for constructing and maintaining roads.

Delegates also urged that Congress consider extending anti-trust statutes to labor unions and take such other action as might be required to correct labor racketeering.

They also pledged their support of Arkansas' right-to-work law.

The convention voted to increase its annual dues from $5 to $10, a move strongly recommended by Harold Ohlendorf of Osceola, president of the federation.

Ohlendorf was re-elected to another one-year term while A. J. Carot of Dewitt was re-elected vice president.

Allies Decide on Plan to Battle Berlin Pressure

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles said today the Western allies have reached basic agreement on how to deal with Soviet pressures over Berlin.

Dulles said that he would not rule out the use of force in defense of Western rights of access to the city but that he thought the question was academic because the Communists have not threatened to cut the land, water or air routes.

Dulles said there are at least two possible explanations of why the Soviet Union has not yet made its proposals to end occupation rights in Berlin although Premier Khrushchev forecast action 10 days ago.

One is that Khrushchev found himself out on a legal limb through failure to consult his lawyers and therefore has had to revise his policy.

Another possible reason is that Soviet repudiation of the whole Potsdam agreement of 1945 might destroy the basis of Poland's rights in former German-held territory.

Dulles said the Polish government may have become alarmed over this.

Dulles refused to spell out precisely what steps the Western powers might take in dealing with any challenge by the Communists over Berlin.

At times his carefully phrased answers skirted around areas in which — in line with persistent reports — there may be disagreement among the Allied powers which include West Germany.

Dulles did say the Western powers must deal with East German officials as agents of the Soviet Union. The Allies are agreed on this as a possible line of action, he said, depending on the circumstances if and when the Russians turn over to the East Germans the control of check points on the routes between West Germany and West Berlin.

Dulles made these other points in response to questions at his news conference:

Scholarly Boy Friend Fails Checkbook Test

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I've spent sleepless nights worrying over my problem and finally decided maybe you could help. I'm 23 and have two boy friends. Both of them want to marry me. The question is, which should I take? One is on my intellectual lake, but he can't make a living for himself. How would he provide for a family? The other is a getter, able to make a dollar out of anything. However, he has no appreciation of the finer things in life. He has no patience with the ballet, opera or art. His idea of entertainment is a western on TV. Which would make the better husband? — Eunice H.

Dear Eunice: What it boils down to is this: Do you want to feed your body or your mind? Can you listen to Beethoven's Ninth while bill collectors knock at the door, or would it be easier to watch Jackie Gleason after a steak dinner, and with the secure knowledge that the refrigerator is well stocked? This I can assure you—which ever one you marry, you'll wish it had been the other. Proust is fascinating reading but a checkbook is more satisfying. If you marry the well-learned prospect, you will have time and money to pursue the arts while he pursues the dollar; marry the intellectual and no one will pay your grocery bill. Maybe you'd just better wait for a highbrow who can make a living.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

Last week I got a job in a diner, I work until midnight. It's not easy for me to get transportation home at that hour, so I let it be known that I was looking for a ride. One of the men from a nearby plant, who gets off at the same time, offered to take me home. He's very handsome and I'm flipping over him. However, we've been riding home for a week now and he hasn't asked for a date. Am I being hasty or is there some thing I can do to encourage him? — Susanna.

Dear Susanna: Have you inquired about his domestic status? His wife may be up keeping a pot of coffee warm for him. Even if he's not already taken, you are being a bit hasty. Hope you show the same speed in serving up a hamburger and java.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My Summer Romance lives quite far away but we have been writing on a friendly basis. His birthday is next month. Should I send him a gift or not? We're each 17. — Starr.

Dear Starr: Presents, no. Birthday card, by all means.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm in love with a boy in Texas and I think he's in love with me, but I don't know for sure. How should I try to find out, by letter or phone? — Minna.

Dear Minna: Try a Ouija Board. Let him use a letter or phone.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her in care of Hope Star.

Bobcats Highly Favored to Defeat Scrappers

Hope goes to Nashville Thanksgiving for the annual game with the Nashville Scrappers at 2:15 p.m. at 2 p.m. the Nashville girls' drill team will put on a show.

This year the Bobcats are highly favored to win by a lopsided score and close out the first undefeated season for a local high school football team.

Over the past, counting from 1928, there have been 30 official games with Hope winning 13 to 14 for Nashville and there was one tie. Actually the teams played more than that during the war years, at least three years they played two games.

But for the record its 15-14 and Hope is slated to make it 16-14. However, the situation last year slightly favored the Bobcats but Nashville came down and really put on a show to clothe Hope 33 to 20 in a minor upset.

Coach John Pierce and his boys haven't forgotten that and if possible will make it up Thursday.

Nashville has had one of its poorest seasons this year but they always manage to get "high" for Hope and the Bobcats and coaches are expecting Thursday to be no different.

Many Hope fans will follow the team to Nashville tomorrow for the final game of the season.

El Dorado again held first place in The Associated Press poll of Arkansas schoolboy teams, but Little Rock Hall narrowed the Wildcats' margin and set the stage to annex the unofficial state title if the Warriors can handle Little Rock Central Thanksgiving Day.

Hall, with a perfect 10-0 record, has been in second place most of the year. El Dorado, the Big Nine champion with a 9-0-1 overall mark, has led every poll by margins ranging from nine points.

El Dorado picked up only five points in the poll, while Little Rock Central picked up only five of eight first place ballots this week for 75 points while Hall, with only one first place vote, collected 71 points.

Fort Smith got two top ballots and edged Little Rock Central for third place. The Grizzlies had 63 points, Central 60. Their positions were reversed last week.

Hope held fifth place with 48 points. Little Rock Catholic retained sixth with 40 and West Memphis remained in seventh with 24.

Fortest City, last week's eighth place team, was lashed by Hall and dropped out of the select 10, allowing De Queen to advance from 10th to eighth with 19 points. Van Buren held ninth with 18 and Conway, which has been in an out of the top 10 all year, moved into 10th with 7 points.

Others receiving votes were Fayetteville 5, Forrest City 4, and Hot Springs, Greenwood and Fordyce 1 each.

Here is the top 10:

Team	Points	Record
1. El Dorado, AAA	75	9-0-1
2. Hall, AAA	71	10-0-0
3. Fort Smith, AAA	63	9-2-0
4. Central, AA	60	7-3-1
5. Hope, AA	48	11-0-0
6. Catholic, AAA	40	8-1-0
7. West Memphis, AA	24	6-0-1

Ernie Banks Most Valuable in National

By DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—Home run king Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs had plenty of bad news for opposing pitchers today after winning the National League's Most Valuable Player award for 1958.

"I've just come upon this knuck of hitting home runs," said the young slugger, who crashed 47 homers to shatter his major league record for shortstops.

Banks, whose homer output and 129 runs batted in topped both major leagues, was an overwhelming choice for MVP in the vote counting Tuesday by the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America.

Named on every ballot, he polled 18 of the 24 first-place votes cast by writers in the eight National League cities and piled up 283 points, the highest total since Willie Mays won the MVP in 1954.

Mays, the only other player listed on every ballot, drew three first-place votes and 185 points for his tremendous effort for the San Francisco Giants last season.

Frank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves, the 1957 MVP, was third with 166 points, followed by Frank

Comedian Dies Unexpectedly

HOULYWOOD (AP)—Top show business celebrities, who only two nights ago were chuckling heartily over Parkyakarkus' final monologue, turn out today for the gleeful comedian's funeral.

George Jessel will deliver the eulogy for Harry (Parkyakarkus) Heston, fatally stricken with a heart attack at a $100-a-plate Friars Club dinner.

Fellow Friars said that Parkyakarkus, who hadn't worked for years because of ill health, was worried that he might lay an egg at the club's 10th anniversary testimonial dinner honoring Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz.

But the 44-year-old radio favorite of the 30s laid 'em in the aisles.

Parkyakarkus was the only unemployed comic on the dais, with such names as George Burns, Dean Martin, Milton Berle, Art Linkletter, Ed Wynn, Tony Martin and George Murphy.

He was in rare form Sunday night with an account of the activities of the Show Business Club, his "home away from home."

"I was the latest pool of any club in town, but there's no water in it. The members call it a football pool," he said.

Spring Hill Captures Two From Genoa

Coach Billy Mitchell's Spring Hill basketballers took 2 out of 3 games last night in the Spring Hill Gym from Genoa.

Spring Hill junior boys took a 19-17 victory in overtime after the regular game ended 17-17. Clinton Kidd scored 7 for the winners and Whitehead 8 for Genoa.

Genoa senior girls captured a 33-18 win with Ferguson getting 12. Brenda Smith was high for the losers with 6.

Jimmy Sherman hit for 15, Bobber Thompson 14 and Terrell Townsend 12 to lead Spring Hill senior boys in a 61-25 rout. Brewer scored 5 for Genoa.

Officials were Joe Young and Russell Mitchell.

College Grid Teams Play Final Games

By ED WILKS, HQ

Associated Press Sports Writer

College football goes into its last full week of the season Thursday with a handful of traditional Thanksgiving Day games that could provide a bowl boost for Pitt, Cincinnati, Miami (Ohio), Tulane and Virginia Military.

Alabama, Clemson, Air Force, Georgia Tech and Southern Methodist get their final shots at bowl bids Saturday.

Only the Rose (Iowa vs. California) and Orange (Oklahoma vs. Syracuse) are set among the five major bowls. The Sugar has Louisiana State in hand and the Cotton has Texas Christian lined up, but each needs another team. The Gator Bowl needs a pair.

The Blue Grass Bowl, a new-comer, also needs two teams, while the Tangerine Bowl needs an opponent for Buffalo, which accepted a berth Tuesday.

Pitt, a prospect for both the Blue Grass and the Gator, goes against Penn State Thursday in the regular-season windup for both. Each has a 5-3 record.

Cincinnati and Miami (Ohio) both are under bowl consideration. Cincinnati by the Blue Grass and Miami by the Tangerine. They play Thursday at Cincinnati.

In other games Thursday, it's the Texas A&M at Texas, VMI at Virginia Tech, Wichita at Tulsa, Colorado State at Denver, William and Mary at Richmond, Utah State at Utah, Cornell at Penn, Wake Forest at South Carolina.

Thomas, Pittsburgh Pirates, with 143, and southpaw Warren Spahn, Braves, with 108.

Banks, 27, said he was surprised by his selection and called the honor "a hard one to get for there certainly are a lot of valuable players around besides me."

A veteran of five full seasons with the Cubs, he said he figures he has "a lot of years ahead of me."

"I think my peak as a player is yet to come," said the 6-foot, 180-pounder.

Banks said he believes Babe Ruth's record of 60 homers in a season will be broken. But he added, "I don't know if I'll be the one to do it, or even come close."

Banks joined Marty Marion, former St. Louis great, as the only shortstop to win the MVP award since the baseball writers took over the voting in 1931. Marion won in the war year of 1944 although he batted only .267, hit six homers and drove in 63 runs.

One of the surprises in the voting was the Blue Grass finish of Stan Musial, the St. Louis Cardinal, named three-time MVP winner who gathered but 38 points.

Ark-La Plans New Gas Facilities

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., Shreveport, La., plans to build a number of small natural gas facilities during 1959 to connect new gas supplies.

The company yesterday asked the Power Commission for authority to spend up to $2,850,000 for such facilities, with no single one to cost more than $500,000.

At Little Rock, Ark-La President W. R. Stephens said the new supply pipelines would run to new discovery wells as they develop—mostly in Louisiana.

and Colgate at Brown. The Texas A&M game will be televised nationally.

Tulsa is on both the Tangerine and Blue Grass lists. VMI is among Tangerine Bowl possibilities, along with Mississippi Southern, East Texas State and Florida State, the probable choice.

Saturday's big game is the Army-Navy brawl at Philadelphia. Notre Dame is at Southern Cal for their annual battle, and Oklahoma makes its game with Wake Forest.

Air Force plays Colorado, and the Falcons will announce their decision on the Cotton Bowl after word. Alabama, a top choice by the Blue Grass committee, goes against unbeaten but bow-banned Auburn. Georgia Tech spots the works against Georgia. Clemson tries to nail the Sugar Bowl bid against Furman. Florida tries for the Blue Grass against Miami.

Pitt and SMU makes its pitch for an upset against TCU and a shot to either the Sugar or Gator Bowl.

Army, Auburn, Texas Picked for Victories

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the weekend where you must decide between a drum stick or a dumb pick. Here's the season's final forecast of college football winners:

Army over Navy: Both clubs started the season with great prospects. The Cadets matured while the Middies were stymied by injuries. The season's experience benefits the Army most and gives the Cadets the edge. Anderson and Dawkins to shine. This one you can see for yourself on TV Saturday.

Auburn over Alabama: The Auburn defense is to tough, but on Saturday it won't be anything like that 40-0 walkover of a year ago.

Texas over Texas A&M: You may watch this one Thursday afternoon while digesting your turkey. The Longhorns finish in high gear.

Pittsburgh over Penn State: Both lost to Nebraska, which won only three games all season. The home field gives Pitt the edge. A Thursday contest.

Air Force over Colorado: A fancy victory for the Air Force undoubtedly means a bowl bid. But the Flyer brass will have an anxious Saturday afternoon despite Brook Storm's stellar play.

Notre Dame over Southern California: That balmy California weather is just what the doctor ordered for George Izo's pitching arm. Another Saturday game.

Skipping over the others:

THURSDAY

Brown over Colgate, Cincinnati over Miami (Ohio), Colorado State University over Denver, Penn over Cornell, Richmond over William and Mary, South Carolina over Wake Forest, Tulsa over Wichita, Utah over Utah State, Virginia Military over Virginia Tech.

SATURDAY

Arizona State over Marquette, Rice over Baylor, Florida over Miami, Georgia Tech over Georgia, Houston over Texas Tech, Texas Christian over Southern Methodist, Mississippi over Mississippi State, Oklahoma over Oklahoma State, Vanderbilt over Tennessee, George Washington over The Citadel, Clemson over Furman.

Airlines Take Dispute Into Federal Court

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Eastern Air Lines and its striking flight engineers today took their dispute into federal court. The three-day-old strike is tying up the nation's largest airline in a peak travel season.

As the Thanksgiving weekend neared, Eastern and another major carrier, Trans World Airlines, appeared far from a settlement. But the outlook was better elsewhere.

On Florida's southeast coast, air reservations requests piled up.

Passengers could get night coach tickets for points north with a two-day wait. The waiting list for first-class flights ran five days.

Coming in by air, the situation was about the same. The earliest National Air Lines would accept reservations from New York to Miami was Monday, Dec. 1.

Railroad reservations were immediate—both ways.

A factor of importance to this tourist-conscious area is that Eastern provides the sole direct air link between Miami and 30 cities, including Detroit, Akron, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, Pittsburgh and Montreal.

American Airlines appeared to have averted a strike by the Air Line Pilots Assn. The pilots said they would honor a court order directed against a walkout scheduled for last midnight.

Final agreement was reached between National Air Lines and the International Assn. of Machinists, according to an announcement. The new contract runs until Oct. 1, 1960.

Northeast Air Line representatives met with the IAM at Boston Tuesday night. Afterward, a company spokesman termed the talks satisfactory.

Meanwhile, Pan American World Airways announced in New York that it had reached a contract settlement with the Air Transport Division of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks. The 3,000 clerical workers had set a strike deadline for the day after Thanksgiving.

Eastern filed suit for more than five million dollars against the Pilot Engineers. The airline also asked federal court to enjoin the asked federal court to enjoin the union. Eastern also asked the court to rule that it can force its engineers to meet qualifications deemed advisable for jet aircraft.

In turn, the Pilot Engineers are suing Eastern. They want federal court to enjoin Eastern and the Air Line Pilots Assn. from negotiating any contract affecting engineers' job qualifications.

Theoretically, Dulles said, it seems that too much money is being spent on military and not enough on economic help.

In response to questions about a recommendation from the National Council of Churches last week that the United States move toward recognizing Red China, Dulles said he attaches great weight to action by church people on moral principles but not the same weight when they get into practical details.

But there have been widespread evidences of disagreement among the Western governments, including the government of West Germany, over the tactics to be followed in carrying out this basic

Mediator Delays Strike of Bakers

CHICAGO (AP)—A federal mediator who never eats pie delayed a strike of 450 pie bakers Tuesday.

So, nearly a million pies, mostly pumpkin and mince, will be available for Thanksgiving dinners in the Chicago area.

Peter Carbonara, Bakers Union president, said after 15 consecutive hours of negotiations in the wage dispute with five major companies he decided to go along with the membership vote and call a strike.

But, he said, William G. Murray, a commissioner with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, intervened.

Carbonara said Murray convinced union officials that "Thanksgiving would be just another day without pumpkin and mince pie on the table" and the walkout was delayed.

"I'm surprised to hear that Murray doesn't eat pie," Carbonara said. "From the way he drooled when he argued against a strike at such a crucial time I thought he must love pie."

He said the union and company officials would resume negotiations Friday.

The pie bakers' Thanksgiving day wage increase from the present $2.27 an hour

FABUS did not take an open part in the campaign but it was considered during the brief campaign that he privately backed Alf, a segregationist.

Hays said he did not want to become known as the founder of a "cult of moderates," and added, "I am strictly a Southern moderate who believes in both moderation of attitude and spirit."

Hays, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, was here for the inauguration of Dr. R. E. Naylor as president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Hays Is Willing to Help Fabus

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark) said yesterday he was still willing to help Gov. O'Neal E. Fabus although he felt Fabus was partly responsible for his election defeat.

"I have a deep feeling for him. I pray for him," Hays said.

The Arkansas congressman said Fabus "provided the thrust" that led to his defeat by write-in candidate Dr. Dale Alford in the Nov. 4 general election.

"Fabus did not take an open part in the campaign but it was considered during the brief campaign that he privately backed Alf, a segregationist."

Hays said he did not want to become known as the founder of a "cult of moderates," and added, "I am strictly a Southern moderate who believes in both moderation of attitude and spirit."

Hays, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, was here for the inauguration of Dr. R. E. Naylor as president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

East German Boss Offers to Negotiate

By REINHOLD ENL
BERLIN (AP) — East German Communist boss Walter Ulbricht today said his regime is prepared to negotiate with the Allies about their access to isolated West Berlin.

Ulbricht's declaration bore out the belief of many observers that the immediate Communist aim is not to drive the Western Allies from Berlin but to force them into negotiations with the Reds about propaganda as recognition of the East German regime.

Ulbricht repeated the Communist thesis that the Allies have no legal right to be in Berlin. "There is no legal basis for the presence of foreign occupation powers in Berlin," he said.

But he said there is no reason to fear that the Communists will blockade the city because, as he put it, there exists the possibility of negotiations.

When the Russians carry out their threat to withdraw from the four-power occupation control of Berlin, one of their first acts is expected to be a transfer to the East Germans of control over the surface and air routes used by the Allies to supply their garrison in West Berlin.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's West German government wants the Allies then to defy East German control with tank-guarded supply convoys. The Allies more likely will negotiate with the East Germans but only on the basis that they are agents of the Russians. In the Allied view, this would preserve their legal position of not recognizing the East German regime as a legitimate government.

Ulbricht first deputy premier of the East German government as well as first party secretary, made his statements in an interview with the London Daily Mail. It was published today by ADN, the official East German news agency.

Manpower Cut Could Affect Ft. Chaffee

WASHINGTON (AP) — An announced 30,000-man cut in the Army could result in the closing of Ft. Chaffee, Ark., and Ft. Polk, La., but Army officials said today no decision have been reached.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy has announced manpower cuts for the various services, including a reduction in the Army from 900,000 to 870,000 by next June 1.

Earlier in the year Arkansas and Louisiana members of Congress had been told that, if the Army were cut below 900,000 some installations, including Polk and Chaffee might be shut down.

An Army spokesman said today, however, that no decision has been reached on what posts might be eliminated, what units might be reduced or just how the cut will be made.

All Army facilities are constantly under review to determine their proper utilization," he said, "and we just don't know at this time what will be done."

Earlier this year Congress voted funds to maintain the Army at 900,000 men through next June 30 and approved a House and Senate Committee report which said the committee felt an army of that size was required.

Congressmen from Arkansas and Louisiana supported the moves and many of them urged the administration to utilize the funds in recognizing, however, that the administration could not be forced to expend the appropriated money if it chose not to.

Polk and Chaffee are regarded as among the first in any of the facilities to be closed because they are power Army posts and probably have considerably less permanent construction than older forts.

One of the largest rice milling installations in the U. S. is in the town of Abbeville, La.

Chapter 33

Paul, howling with rage, plunged for the dog, but Rex and whisked around Katherine's shoulder, and shaking the paper. He understood this game. It was one he liked.

Aunt Millicent had hovered on the edge of the brawl. Her face took on a gentle pleading expression. Her voice was plaintive, "Here doggie. Nice doggie. Come on, fine doggie. Come on and I'll scratch your ears for you. Here, doggie."

For a moment it had looked as if Rex might obey her, but then he stopped short. He cocked his head, but he did not come any closer.

Rex dashed away toward the kitchen door, dropped the paper, barked twice, nosed the paper happily, picked it up between his teeth again, and ran on into the kitchen, where they could hear him scrambling wildly on top linoleum floor.

"Shut him in there. Don't let him get out!"

She noticed that Paul limped when he tried to walk. She held herself very still as he started toward the kitchen, praying that he would have forgotten for the moment that she was there. And even if he saw her, could she run away fast enough that he couldn't catch her if he'd hurt himself.

Just now?

But before her thoughts had crystallized enough for her to reach a decision, he turned back and said in that terrible voice, "Come here."

He caught hold of her hair and pulled it sharply, and through the agony she heard him say, "Now Come on!"

Aunt Millicent had closed the kitchen door. Paul banged it open now, pulled Katherine through and slammed it behind them.

Rex had hidden himself under the kitchen table as well as he could, the soggy piece of paper still draped from his jaws, and Aunt Millicent, holding a broom upside down, was jabbing at him with the handle. He covered, looking at her, and then turned and looked at Katherine.

Paul said, "Here, I'll get him!"

He let go of Katherine's hair and started toward the table. The moment she was free she whirled toward the door, propelled as if a spring inside her had been suddenly released.

"Get her. Catch her!"

She had not looked back.

Her hands were on the door knob when the handle of the broom hit her shoulder with a sickening crash; she staggered, the door wavered in front of her, and her opportunity was gone. Aunt Millicent leapt at her like a

Garland played six games and won all of them, clinching the championship of Hope elementary school football teams.

Members of the team were honored with a father-son banquet in the school cafeteria, sponsored by the PTA. Jack Lowe was master of ceremonies and Judge James L. Pilkinton gave the invocation. Dr. Lloyd Guerin showed a film of a Bobcat game, and Charles Gough was a special guest. The team presented Coach Bob Westbrook with a gift.

panther, fastened those iron fingers in her hair, and pulled with all her strength.

Katherine reached out blindly for support, and was aware of a different doorknob under her hand this time. It was the door leading to the basement. But the door did not support her; she had been so careful to make no noise when she crept up the steps and through it that she had not fastened it behind her. It swung open now under her touch, the stairs yawned below her, and she sagged back against the wall and sank to her knees while Aunt Millicent, yanking frenziedly at her hair, shouted, "Get up. Get up!"

She heard Rex snarl. His head flew forward; she heard the snap of his teeth just as Paul snatched back his hand. And in that same second Rex retrieved the paper, dashed out from under the table, scrambled across the room, his nails scratching at the floor; and before anyone could move he was through the wide open doorway thumping down the basement stairs.

Paul was on his feet again, but it was too late. Katherine was jerked upright, to, and they stood together, the three of them, at the head of the stairs looking down, while Rex stood at the bottom, brown against the drab concrete, looking up.

Paul had already started down the stairs, thumping heavily on the wooden treads. "We can corner him down here."

Rex retreated slowly, his tail down, feeling his way with his hind legs. Aunt Millicent did not even glance at Katherine; she started down the stairs, dragging her victim behind her.

Katherine saw that Paul was still limping. He was no match for a dog running away from him at full speed. But there was no place for Rex to run to; sooner or later he would be cornered; his pursuers could afford to let him back himself against a wall.

And that was almost immediately, what he did do. He ran up the wall rose straight up in front of him. Then he stopped, looked back and began sitting along it. They began to close in on him. Paul from one side. Aunt Millicent dragging Katherine from another. Rex shrank down, he whined. He bent his legs and began to crawl. But he did not stand still.

Paul rushed in toward the wall bent over to catch a tail, or an ear, or whatever his hand touched on; but once more Rex was too fast for him. He scampered out of reach along the wall, dashed out a little way into the room, and came to the edge of the pit with the machinery.

He looked into it. Katherine screamed "No No!" and then he cocked his head at her attentively. Rex turned away, trotted along for a few feet beside the iron railing until he came to the opening for the steps leading down into the pit, ducked under the guard chain, and slipped down the steps and out of sight.

Paul made a sound of triumph, half yelling, half laughter. "He can't get out now!"

Jury Finds Negro Guilty of Murder

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—A jury of white men yesterday convicted a 24-year-old Negro of first degree murder in the slaying of a young Negro woman.

Circuit Judge Elmo Taylor then sentenced J. T. House of Lakeview to death in the electric chair and set the execution date for Jan. 23, 1959.

House testified that he had hit Ernestine Coley, 18, of Onida in the head with a tire tool last July 26, but contended that he did so in self defense. He said the girl had struck him with a bottle during an argument.

The defendant said he had not meant to kill the girl, but that after he realized she was dead he tossed the body into Long Lake, from which it was recovered later.

CARS

with surprises!

Expect to be dazzled when you see these totally new Fords! Each one of Ford's 19 new models is completely and refreshingly changed in every square inch. Each, in its own way, is the world's most beautifully proportioned car. Each has Thunderbird elegance.

Look for something new and just right in size . . . and you'll find it! The lowest-priced Fords are 6 stunning inches longer . . . have 2 extra inches of smooth-riding wheelbase.

Expect something wonderful in savings. For instance, Ford prices for '59 are traditionally down-to-earth prices. And Fords are traditionally worth more when you sell them, too. Ford's aluminumized mufflers—standard equipment—last twice as long as conventional mufflers. Ford's standard V-8 and Six save up to 5¢ a gallon because they require only regular gas. Ford cars need oil changes only each 4000 miles. And Ford's new super enamels never need waxing.

Look for something special in performance. New Thunderbird V-8's concentrate their new punch at speeds from 30 to 70 mph, where you need it most.

Look for newness everywhere . . . right down to the new Tyrex tires. Let your Ford Dealer show you. You've never had it so new!

The wonderful new Fairlane
500 Town Victoria . . . one of 19 all-new Fords for '59
